

FRANCISCAN CENTER RIVERSIDE PAVILION PAVERS

Back in the 1940's, Center benefactor Joseph Miyares invited area schools to hold dances and socials on the property, using his riverside pavilion (now our beloved Sabbath House.) We invite you to bridge the past and the present by participating in the construction of our new riverside pavilion, designed and built by students in the University of South Florida School of Architecture and Community Design.

Contribution levels are as follows:

Builders Society – $1,000

Acknowledgement engraved on a specially-designer granite tile

Framers Guild – $500

Acknowledgement engraved on a specially-designed glass tile

Carpenters Club – $250

8x 8" paver engraved with your inscription

Above levels include a name, a meaningful scripture passage, significant date, remembrance of a loved one or a special memory of the Center. Up to 5 lines of 15 characters per line.

Masons Circle – $100

4 x 8" paver engraved with your inscription. Includes: A name, a meaningful scripture passage, significant date, remembrance of a loved one or a special memory of the Center. Up to 3 lines of 15 characters per line.
